YEAR 7 CAMP

On a crowded bus, a group of pumped year 7s and our teachers set off on an adventure to Halls Gap. On arrival at Norval Camp, we quickly got into our activity groups, to venture to the Brambuk Indigenous Centre where we listened to dream time stories, attempted to play the didgeridoo and tried bush tucker.

That afternoon we set up our rooms then all participated in a huge boot camp competition. After tallying up the scores it turned out that Group Six had won. Then we all went back to our rooms until dinner - which was amazing.

After dinner we then all tried training our brain to think positive and then it was time for bed! Grace Gamble from 7D said, 'My favourite activity was canoeing because it was really fun and we got wet and cold and I enjoyed it so much'. Ned Cotter from 7B said, 'It was great to overcome my fear of heights by completing the abseiling task'.

One of the highlights of the Year 7 camp was the river walk and going to an awesome ice-cream shop.

Benjamin O'Meara from 7A said, 'It was really cool to go up to the mountains and try some amazing water. Then we got to go to one of the best ice-cream shops, it was so YUMMY!'

After all the activities were done we then joined together for the Mexican fiesta. We had a lip sync battle and Group Three won.

Lachlan Bursill from 7A said 'My favourite part about camp was the lip sync battle because we crushed it, but I personally believe my team was robbed of the victory.'

That night we had lots of fun games but we all went to bed tired after a long day. To finish our amazing camp we went to the Halls Gap Zoo where we all got to hold or pat a snake. Teagan Cole from 7A said, 'it was one of the best experiences I have ever had, holding the snake was just amazing!'

After a fun day at the zoo, our camp was over and we had to go home. Thank you to all of the staff who made it an amazing adventure!

FIJI COMMUNITY SERVICE TOUR

Mahatma Gandhi wrote 'the best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others'. We feel blessed to have been able to assist students on a journey of self-discovery and growth and are very proud of the way that each and every one of them embraced this experience. We returned from Fiji with hearts full of love and gratitude - something that money can't buy.

On arrival at Nadi International Airport, we were greeted by big bula smiles and hearts full of love. We were in a foreign country but it felt like we had come home. We were also lucky enough to meet 'Cyclone Josie' on Day 1 of our trip. At the time we were not very excited to meet her but we soon realized that this was part of the bigger picture that would make our service work in Somosomo even more important. It also helped to know that we were in very safe hands of the amazing Rustic Pathways team.

The real transformation and magic occurred once we had left Nadi and ventured across the sea to Somosomo Village. The people welcoming us home was music to our ears and touched our hearts.

Somosomo is an oasis. We experienced the contagious joy that radiated from the people and the land. Despite the fact that the community was damaged by a natural disaster and constantly faced weather challenges, the locals remained resilient and positive. Optimism was a notable attribute within the community.

Working for and alongside the Fijian people was a gift that none of us could begin to repay. The Fijians, despite not owning as much as people in the western world, appreciated the life they had. With little to no complaint, they spoke of their home and belongings with pride. They assisted their people with no ulterior motive and held no expectation that they were going to receive anything in return.

We left knowing that there were other ways to interact with our world. The lessons and memories we shared will be treasured by us forever.

THAILAND COMMUNITY SERVICE TOUR

Ten students and two staff made the 26-hour journey to Mae Sariang, in the Mae Hong Son Province of Northern Thailand. For ten days Thailand became our home and a place we all fell in love with.

We were greeted at the Chiang Mai International Airport by our four Rustic Pathways leaders, Andrew, Katrina, Pee Bae and Palm. We then made the four-hour drive to the Rustic Pathways Children's Home (RPCH). Upon our arrival, we met the Karen students that call the RPCH their home during term time.

Highview students immediately bonded with their Thai buddies and explored the local area, visiting Karen village, learning the art of weaving, visiting a local Buddhist temple and exploring the local markets. Thai students put on a performance, showcasing their culture and in return, the Highview students taught the Thai students about Australia.

Highview students put their preparation into practice and completed their English lessons with the Karen students. This was a wonderful experience for all students.

We spent two days at Mae Sa Kua where the locals welcomed us into their homes while we built a solid fence for the primary school to keep animals out of the garden. The first day involved moving the materials from the school down a steep hill where the fence would be built. We carried bucket after bucket of sand and stone to our worksite. No cement mixer in sight, just shovels, hoes and a lot of muscle to make the cement. It was hard work in the 37-degree heat, but we pushed through and managed to complete four sections of the fence and laid the base for two more during our time there. Before we left we had the privilege of meeting the village chief who thanked us for our hard work.

The following morning we headed back to the RPCH to re-pack our bags, say a final farewell to the students at the RPCH and then headed back to Chiang Mai. The remainder of our trip was spent in Chiang Mai and focused on culture and conservation.

Our group attended three more night markets where we tried local cuisine and learnt the art of bartering. We were also treated to a cooking class, learning some local recipes and enjoying some delicious food. The conservation leg of our journey took us to The Forest Restoration Research Unit at Chiang Mai University to learn about the importance of forest restoration across Thailand. Students tried their hand at planting and classification of plants.

Students also attended the Elephant Nature Park and saw firsthand the damage that occurs through the exploitation of Elephants in logging and tourism across Asia. We were given the chance to feed and bath the elephants - an experience that everyone found amazing.

Throughout this journey, the students and staff developed a bond that will remain with them forever. Each and every one of us was touched by the beauty and generosity of the people in Thailand. We have all come away with a whole new perspective on our lives and are so grateful to have had this experience.

As part of the 2018-19 Federal Budget, the Government has announced that La Trobe University and the University of Melbourne will partner to deliver a new rural medical program in the Murray Darling region.

From 2019 a cohort of La Trobe students, selected collaboratively by both universities, will enter La Trobe's new three-year Bachelor of Biomedical Science (Medical) undergraduate degree delivered at La Trobe's Bendigo and Albury-Wodonga campuses. Those who successfully complete the course will then gain guaranteed entry into the University of Melbourne's new Doctor of Medicine (Rural) postgraduate degree, based in Shepparton.

The University of Melbourne will relocate up to 30 Commonwealth Supported Places to Shepparton for this purpose. The selection process will target students with rural backgrounds who are seeking a career in the rural health workforce.

Choosing the education institution that is right for you is crucial. Not only will it increase your chances of completing your course, it makes good economic sense to thoroughly research your options.

The Quality Indicators of Teaching and Learning (QILT) website enables students and families to compare data between universities, private providers and TAFE institutes in course areas they are interested in taken from current students and recent graduates of the institutions.

Measures include:

- Overall quality of education experience
- Teacher quality
- Learner engagement
- Access to learning resources
- Access to student support
- Experience of newly qualified graduates
- Teaching scale
- Skills scale
- Employment outcomes

FIGHT AGAINST MND

On Sunday 17 June I am participating in the 'MND up the Creek 3' day at Campbell's Creek football ground. I will be taking the plunge into the ice tank to help raise much needed funds to go towards research and to assist those suffering from MND.

Motor Neurone disease is the name given to a group of diseases where the nerve cells (neurons) that control muscles that enable us to move fail to work normally. Muscles then gradually weaken and waste, as neurones degenerate and die.

As the disease can come in many forms, diagnosis for MND is often hard to establish and that's why funds are needed for research. I know this firsthand from my grandpa who took three years to be diagnosed and passed away four weeks after diagnosis.

Since my connection to MND began six years ago, awareness has grown but there is always still more that we can do. This has given me the inspiration to take on the challenge of the ice tank and fight back against MND. To do so I need to raise a minimum $500 in donations, therefore any contribution small or large is greatly appreciated.

If you would like to donate to this worthy cause and to allow me to take the challenge you can direct deposit by the following details: Account Name: MND Up the creek, BSB: 633 000, ACC no: 157559048 and reference 'E Taylor MND' or donate in cash. There are collection tins at Reception and in the staffroom.

Please let me know by email if you choose to donate so I can keep track of my total Sponsorships.

Thanks, Elyse Taylor

Over the Moon Studio: Winter School Holiday Program

Over the Moon Yoga and Dance Studios warmly invites children and teenagers to the Winter School Holiday Program running from the 11th-13th July (the second week of the school holidays).

Over the Moon has been providing high quality yoga and dance education in the artistic hub of Castlemaine since 1990. We offer an array of movement styles that all prioritise students' wellbeing, age appropriate and sustainable technique development, self expression and the joy of dance.

There are three separate programs in the Winter School, grouped by age:

5-8 year olds

9:00am-11:30am daily: yoga and creative dance, classical ballet, character dance and acrobatics.

Cost: $100, or $190 for two

9-12 year olds

10:00am-3:45pm daily: yoga/creative dance, contemporary, classical ballet, character dance, acrobatics, choreography, jazz, Bollywood and urban.

Cost: $165, or $310 for two

Teenagers (13+)

9:00am-5:00pm daily*: contemporary, classical ballet, character dance, yoga/creative dance, acrobatics, choreography, jazz, Bollywood and urban.

Cost: $190, or $360 for two

The teenagers' program will have a contemporary choreographic focus with acclaimed dancer and choreographer Michelle Heaven. Michelle has worked with Chunky Move, BalletLab and Kage amongst her many credits. Her 2017 Melbourne Festival show In Plan was recently nominated for two Green Room awards. Teenagers' choreography will be documented by a guest cinematographer and made into a souvenir film for participants to take home.

Children and teenagers said of our previous programs:

*"I got to do lots of different styles - I loved them all"
"I liked dancing! Making new friends, having new teachers"*
